TV Effects on Children

Answer the questions according to the reading

A recent opinion poll discovered that many people were very concerned about the amount of sex and violence depicted in movies, television shows, and popular music. This poll also discovered, however, that most people thought that individuals should take responsibility to correct the problems. The vast majority favoured such solutions as tighter parental supervision, warning labels on records, and voluntary self-restraints by entertainment companies. Only 27 per cent favoured government censorship. At the same time, there was growing concern about the impact of television on children. Research has shown that by the time our children reach age 18, they have spent more time watching television than in school. The problem was that our television system was attuned to the marketplace. Children are treated as a market to be sold to advertisers at so much money per thousand eyeballs.

1. According to the reading, to prevent the bad effects of television, only a minority ----.

- A) support individual action
- B) say parents should supervise their children
- C) believe in the necessity of censorship applied by governments
- D) think television companies have to control their own programmes
- E) require the records be put labels

2. It is stated in the passage that ----.

- A) many people think pop music videos are not so violent as movies
- B) movies today are a good means to show the young the possible dangers awaiting for them in the real world
- C) parents believe there should be more television programmes on television suitable for the young's sexual education
- D) television has covered more place in an eighteen-year-old teenager's life than school
- E) parents believe schools are the places where our children first learn what violence is

3. It is emphasized in the reading that ----.

- A) many children have eyesight problems due to watching television excessively
- B) children are a main focus of the advertisers
- C) there are not enough advertisements on television
- D) our television programmes should be designed according to our children's preferences
- E) children should learn what to watch on television at school.

How to Discipline Children's Behavior

A book has just been published to help parents to deal with their children's naughty behavior at home. The author, Dr James Bruno, says that the first positive discipline technique is for parents to remain calm because nervous parents don't get good results. Parents who cannot often remain calm find that their children stop taking any notice of them. The second challenge is to know how to correct bad behavior in an effective way. For instance, punishing children by preventing them from watching their favorite TV program is not an ideal solution. Dr Bruno believes parents should establish clear rules for children to follow. If children refuse to follow these, they know they will be disciplined. Finally, the most effective way of encouraging good behavior is to give positive feedback as often as possible, to show that it is not only naughtiness that attracts attention.

1. According to the article, when parents get angry too often, ----.

- A) they yell at their children to make them obey an order
- B) they tell them off in front of their friends
- C) children often act as if they didn't hear them
- D) they utter increasing number of verbal warnings
- E) children get scared and obey their parents

2. The author of the book seems to suggest that in order to discipline children, parents first of all should ----.

- A) find an effective way to correct their children's behaviour
- B) treat them as harshly as possible
- C) stop beating them
- D) not lose their temper
- E) teach them how they have to behave themselves

3. We learn from the reading that ----.

- A) clear rules which are set by the parent must be followed by the children unconditionally
- B) restricting the activities that children like doing is not useful when disciplining a child
- C) giving feedback all the time is not advised when correcting bad behaviour
- D) the book by Dr James Bruno helped the parents a lot who try to discipline their naughty children
- E) the best punishment for naughty children hasn't been suggested in Dr Bruno's book
